IMPRISONMENT

The defendant, Hyun Ji Martin, is hereby committed to the custody of the Federal Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of 151 months on count one of the one-count indictment.

The Court recommends that the defendant be incarcerated at a facility in either the Eastern District of Texas or the Northern District of Texas, as close to Marshall, Texas, as possible. The Court further recommends that the defendant be enrolled in the Institution Residential Drug Abuse Treatment Program, if eligible.

The defendant is remanded to the custody of the United States marshal.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of 3 years on count one of the one-count indictment.

In the event the defendant is not deported upon release from imprisonment, or should the defendant ever be within the United States during any portion of the term of supervised release, the defendant, while on supervised release, shall comply with the standard conditions recommended by the U. S. Sentencing Commission at §5D1.3(c) of the United States Sentencing Commission Guidelines Manual, and shall:

FINE/RESTITUTION

The Court does not order a fine or costs of incarceration because the defendant does not have the financial resources or future earning capacity to pay a fine or costs of incarceration.

Restitution is not ordered because there is no victim other than society at large.
